Where an item is replaced or repaired the warranty will not be prolonged. We, or the manufacturer should be contacted prior to purchase if any clarification is required.

7.2 If a faulty item is within its warranty period it should be returned to us at your cost and risk. We will then organize repair/replacement on your behalf and return the product to you at our cost in a timely fashion.

7.3 In some instances we will choose to extend the warranty beyond that of the manufacturer. These items are clearly identified on our site and the special terms will be confirmed in writing in both our order acknowledgement and our subsequent invoice. The same procedure described in clause 7.2 should be followed in these cases.

7.4 Where we have chosen to extend a warranty, we guarantee that the product will be free from manufacturing defect for the period described. The guarantee is valid provided the product:
